Problems with Pupils

A schoolteacher approaching 40, I was resisting the idea of wearing glasses. After my classroom cleared for recess, I noticed one student loitering in a dark corner of the hallway. I told him to go outside, but he didn't budge an inch.

Annoyed, I headed down the hall, still ordering him to get moving. Finally, when I reached the corner, I realized I'd been hollering at an upright vacuum cleaner.

I saw the eye doctor the very next week!
